THE SOUTH
CAROLINA GAZETTE.
[VOL. XXXII.] [NUMB. 1620.]
From Monday AUGUST 25, to Monday SEPTEMBER 1, 1766.

BOSTON, July 3.

Thurſday the following Addreſs was preſented to his Excellency the Governor.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

THE houſe of repreſentatives have duly attended to that part of your Excellency's ſpeech which had refere ce to a full and ample compenſation to be made to the ſufferers in the late diſturbances.

We are ſenſibly affected with the loſs they have ſuſtained, and have the greateſt abhorrence of the madneſs and barbarity of thoſe perſons who were the inſtruments of their ſufferings,—nothing ſhall be omitted by us in our department to bring the perpetrators of ſo horrid a fact to exemplary juſtice, and, if it be in our power, to a pecuniary reſtitution of all damages.

But, may it pleaſe your Excellency, as a compliance with your Excellency's recommendation to the provincial aſſembly to make up theſe loſſes, appears to this houſe not as an act of juſtice, but rather of generoſity, they are in doubt whether they have any authority to make their conſtituents chargeable with it, without their expreſs conſent:—The houſe therefore beg leave to acquaint your Excellency, that they have thought it their duty to refer the conſideration of this matter to the next ſitting of the general court, that the members may have the opportunity of taking the minds and inſtruction of their ſeveral towns thereupon.

Friday laſt, his Excellency the Governor ſent the following Meſſage to the hon. Houſe of Repreſentatives, viz.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

AS your reaſons for not complying at preſent with what has been recommended to you by order of the king, with the advice of his parliament, on the behalf of the ſufferers in the late diſturbances, will probably be canvaſſed with great preciſion; it will be proper that the intendment of them ſhould be as certain as may be. I ſhould therefore be glad to know, whether I muſt underſtand from your meſſage of yeſterday, that it is your opinion that a detection of the perpetrators of the late miſchiefs is neceſſary to entitle the ſufferers to a compenſation for their loſſes.

It appears to be the gracious intention of the king and parliament, that a veil ſhould be caſt over the late diſturbances, provided it be covered by a general and uniform dutiful behaviour for the future. But it is certainly no leſs their firm and reſolute purpoſe, that the ſufferers by theſe diſturbances ſhall have a full and ample indemnification made to them; and this buſineſs has been committed to you upon principles of humanity and juſtice, rather than of mere generoſity.

If you think that an enquiry into the promotion and perpetration of the late diſorders is a neceſſary preliminary to determine from whence the charge of the compenſation ſhall finally come, and ſhall pronounce for the expediency of ſuch an enquiry, you will certainly be aſſiſted by the governor and council in the proſecution of it: And I dare ſay it will be no difficult work to trace this matter to the bottom.

But in the mean time, I fear the king and parliament will think their intimations diſregarded, by your propoſing an enquiry now, after it has been neglected for nine months paſt; during all which time the houſe have had this very buſineſs of indemnification under their conſideration. They expect from you that the ſufferers ſhall be indemnified at all events, whether the offenders are diſcovered or not, or whether they are able to pay the damages or not; and ſeem to be more intent upon indemnification than puniſhment.

I therefore wiſh, for the ſake of the provinces whoſe intereſts, and eſpecially thoſe of its trade, are now in a very nice balance, and for the ſake of this town, whoſe reſpectable inhabitants have already ſuffered much in the opinion of the world, for having been tame ſpectators of the violences committed in it, that you would remove this diſgrace without the leaſt delay, by ordering the indemnification immediately to be made upon the credit of thoſe whom you ſhall hereafter judge to be chargeable with it. When this is done there can be no objection to your poſtponing the conſideration, on whom this money ought ultimately to be laid, to what time you pleaſe: And there is no doubt but that an enquiry, which you ſhall think fit to make for this purpoſe, will be as efficacious as you can deſire. FRA. BERNARD.

Province Houſe, June 27, 1766.

Upon which the houſe the next day preſented to his Excellency the following Addreſs.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

THE houſe have duly attended to your Excellency's meſſage of the 27th inſtant.—We are fully ſenſible of the goodneſs of the king and parliament, and agree with your Excellency, that it appears to be their gracious intention that a veil ſhould be drawn over the late diſturbances. And, we hope, our behaviour will always be ſuch, as to merit their approbation.

Sir, The houſe are ever attentive to the applications of perſons of every rank, whoſe caſe juſtly claims their conſideration: But as the ſufferers whom we apprehend your Excellency refers to, have never applied to this houſe (as we conceive) in a parliamentary way for relief; we are humbly of opinion, that we have done all at preſent, that our moſt gracious ſovereign and his parliament can reaſonably expect from us.—But to ſhew our regard to every thing recommended by the king and parliament, we have appointed a committee to ſit in the receſs of the court, to make a thorough enquiry into the riots committed in the month of Auguſt laſt, and diſcover the perſons concerned therein as far as may be. For the effectuating which buſineſs we doubt not, but we ſhall be aided by your Excellency, and his Majeſty's council.

And further we would acquaint your Excellency, that the houſe have paſſed a reſolve to take the report of this committee under conſideration at the beginning of the next ſeſſions of this court, and act thereon what ſhall appear to them to be juſt and reaſonable.

Your Excellency is pleaſed to enforce the immediate compliance of the houſe with this requiſition, by an argument drawn from a regard to the town of Boſton, the reputation of whoſe inhabitants your Excellency ſays, has already ſuffered much for having been tame ſpectators of the violences committed, and that this diſgrace would be removed thereby. We ſee no reaſon why the reputation of that town ſhould ſuffer in the opinion of any one, from all the evidence that has fallen under the obſervation of the houſe; nor does it appear to us how a compliance would remove ſuch diſgrace, if that town had been ſo unhappy as to have fallen under it.

KINGSTON, (in Jamaica) June 14.

Wedneſday, about midnight, was felt, in this town, a moſt tremendous ſhock of an earthquake, which laſted better than a minute and a half, and threw the inhabitants into the greateſt conſternation, the houſes ſhaking in ſo terrible a manner that their deſtruction was each moment expected; but, (thanks to the Almighty) no particular damage has enſued. We hear from Port Royal, that the ſhock was ſo very violent there, that the inhabitants were up the whole night; and under the utmoſt dread of a like cataſtrophe to that which befel their unhappy town, on the 7th of June 1692, when two thirds of it were ſwallowed up, and a great number of lives loſt. We have much the ſame accounts from Spaniſh-Town and Liguanea.

BOSTON, June 30.

In Capt. Binney, who ſailed from hence laſt Monday for London, ſeven Indians of the Mohawk tribe went paſſengers, four men and three women; it is ſaid they are gone home with complaints that part of their lands were taken poſſeſſion of by perſons belonging to New-York government: Four other perſons accompanied them.

Thurſday laſt one Magnus Mode, a ſeafaring man, who arrived here laſt week from Briſtol, was apprehended and committed to goal on a violent ſuſpicion of being concerned in the riot of the night following the 26th of Auguſt laſt, when his honour the lieutenant governor's houſe and furniture, &c. were deſtroyed. A lady's gold watch, belonging to his honour's ſiſter, was found upon him.

QUEBEC, July 3.

Saturday the 28th ult. at 11 o' clock in the forenoon, his Excellency the Honourable Major General James Murray, Eſq; Governor of this province, embarked on board the ſhip Little William, Capt. John Grant, for England: He was attended at the beach by public officers, ſeveral of the religious orders, merchants and other inhabitants. He was attended in barges to the ſhip by Col. Jones, who commands the fifty-ſecond regiment and gariſon, Capt Morris, commanding the detachment of the 27th regiment in gariſon here, and the officers of their corps; by Col. Robertſon, barrack maſter general of North-America; Mr. O'Brien, Lady Suſan O'Brien, and other ladies (under a ſalute from the cannon of the grand battery) who alſo attended his Excellency down the river, to near the pariſh of St. Laurent, upon the iſland of Orleans, where they took leave, and left the ſhip, and his Excellency proceeded upon his voyage, the wind fair, and the day fine. His Excellency has to accompany him on his voyage Francis Mackey, Eſq; and his lady; Lieut. Roſe of the 52d regiment, Lieut. Abbot of the royal artillery, and Mr. Fotheringham.

The ſame day at 11 o' clock at night, arrived in this city from London, on board the Commerce, Capt. Johnſon, Mr. BRIAND, biſhop of Quebec, for the Roman Catholicks, who manifeſted on this occaſion all their affection for what concerns their religion. On the day following, at 5 o' clock in the morning, the bells of all their churches announced his arrival to the whole city, which gave ſuch general ſatisfaction to the Canadians, that many of them were ſeen to ſhed tears thro' joy. It was really affecting to ſee them congratulate each other wherever they met, and to hear them inceſſantly ſay one to another, "It is then true that we have a biſhop; God hath taken pity of us:" And to ſee them afterwards run in crowds to the pariſh church to ſee this biſhop, whom they look upon as the ſupport of their religion, and as a pledge of the King's paternal goodneſs to them. In fact, at the ſame time that they publickly bleſs the Lord for having given them a biſhop, they loudly proclaim their gratitude to his Majeſty for having attended to their requeſts: It is likely that this favour conferred on the Canadians by the King, will effectually attach them to the Britiſh government. It is alſo very pleaſing to them, to have received on this occaſion the congratulations of ſeveral perſons of note of our nation, who indeed ſeem to partake of their joy. And we doubt not, but that the Canadians, who appear to be very ſuſceptible of gratitude, will by thoſe means become more firmly united to us.

The Little William was met in her way by the Commerce, Capt. Johnſon, on board of which were the honourable Thomas Mills, Eſq; appointed by his Majeſty one of the council, and receiver general of this province; and a major of Brigade for one of the diviſions in North-America.

On Monday morning laſt the civil and military officers, the prieſts, and gentlemen of the ſeveral religious order, merchants and others, waited upon the hon. lieutenant-colonel PAULUS ÆMILIUS IRVING, preſident of the council, to compliment him upon his taking the civil command.

By letters from London we learn, that colo. Carleton, appointed Lieut. Governor of this province, and commander in chief of his Majeſty's forces for the northern diſtrict, was to ſail for this place about the 15th of May laſt.

NEW YORK, July 12.

By letters from the Bay we learn, that proviſions, and bread in particular, is ſo very ſcarce there, that many veſſels ready to ſail could not proceed to ſea for want thereof.

A motion we are told is on the point of being made, for a compleat ſet of 10 bells to adorn Trinity church ſteeple, partly to be carried into execution by way of ſubſcription, and any deficiency will no doubt be made good by the church.—A noble [illegible], and if carried into execution with any ſpirit, will give an ornament to the city few others can boaſt of.

July 21. The Packet Indiaman ſailed from Teneriffe about the 1ſt of April laſt for the Eaſt Indies, after taking on board about 450 pipes of wine.

We hear the lords of the treaſury have wrote to the reſpective governors on the continent, deſiring them to ſend back the ſtamped paper to Great-Britain.

BOSTON, July 14.

Laſt Wedneſday morning died, univerſally lamented, that great friend to liberty, to learning, and mankind, that faithful ſervant of God, and diſciple of Jeſus Chriſt, the Rev. Dr. Jonathan Mayhew, D. D. ætat. 46. He was matriculated at Cambridge, A. D. 1740, and his genius being truly original, he with great facility ſoon diſtinguiſhed himſelf in the various branches of polite and uſeful literature. Having finiſhed his academical ſtudies, and a courſe of divinity, he was in the year 1747 called to and accepted the paſtoral care of the weſt church in Boſton, in which to the inexpreſſible comfort and ſatisfaction of the people Providence had committed to his charge, he continued till his laſt illneſs.

PHILADELPHIA, July 17.

Monday laſt died in an advanced age, Iſaac Norris, Eſq; who during his life was many years a repreſentative for this county, and ſpeaker in the houſe of aſſembly, which truſt he always diſcharged with honour and fidelity.

July 24. On Thurſday morning laſt, departed this life, in this city, the Rev. Dr. Samuel Finley, Preſident of the college of New-Jerſey, in the 51ſt year of his age, and was interred in a plain manner, purſuant to his own requeſt, the morning following, in the new Preſbyterian church, where a ſermon ſuitable to the occaſion was preached by the Rev. Mr. Richard Treat.

We hear that on the 14th inſtant the hon. Sir William Johnſon, Baronet, was at the German Flats, on his way to Oſwego, to meet Pondiac and the Weſtern nations.

ANNAPOLIS, Maryland, July 17.

A very unhappy affair has lately happened in Virginia, which has been differently related: The following accounts are taken from two late Virginia Gazettes, one of the 20th of June, and the other of the 4th of July, the firſt being a letter to the publiſher.

UPON an inquiſition taken before the coroner in Cumberland county, Robert Routlidge was found to be murdered (June 3d) by a ſword in the hand of John Chiſwell, whereupon he was committed to the county priſon, and the examining court, upon full evidence (refuſing to bail him on a motion for that purpoſe) ordered him to the public priſon, as the law directs, to be tried for murder. But before he was delivered to the keeper of the public priſon, the judges of the general court, out of ſeſſions, took him from the ſheriff who conveyed him from Cumberland, and admitted him to bail, without ſeeing the record of his examination in the county, or examining any of the witneſſes againſt him. I aſk, Whether this act of three judges of the general court be legal? If it is legal, I have nothing more to ſay. If it is not legal, then I aſk, whether the act of theſe judges has not a tendency to overturn the laws and conſtitution of the country, by their exerciſing an extra judicial power, and controuling the courſe of law in a caſe of the higheſt conſequence to the ſafety of the ſubject? Whether the bail taken by theſe judges in an extra judicial manner can be liable on their recognizances, if Mr. Chiſwell ſhould not appear to take his trial? If they are not liable, Whether it is not in fact a reſcue, under pretence of law, of a perſon charged with an atrocious crime! And further, if it is a reſcue, Whether the ſheriff, Mr. Jeſſe Thomas, is not ſtill liable to a proſecution, for not taking theſe meaſures to recover his priſoner as are proper to be taken when a priſoner is reſcued?

Williamſburg, July 3.

Whereas the admitting Colonel Chiſwell to bail is much cenſured by many people, I hear, and an anonymous publication in the gazette before laſt ſhows the warm zeal of the author againſt it; for public information and to remove the bad impreſſion it may make on ſome, for want of a true knowledge of the motives that prevailed on the judges of the general court to take that unuſual ſtep, I do hereby certify, that it was not done without firſt having it under the hands of three eminent lawyers of the court that it is lawful for us to do it; nor, as to the expediency, was it done until two depoſitions were taken before us, by which it appeared, that though it was a moſt unhappy drunken affair, and very culpable, yet there was no malice prepenſe, but a long intimate friendſhip between them; that the firſt aſſault was from the deceaſed, who threw a glaſs of wine in Col. Chiſwell's face, both much in liquor, which was returned with the bowl of punch, and ſo aſſaults on both ſides were reiterated until Routlidge took up the chair to knock Chiſwell down, on which he ſent his man for his ſword; but when brought to him naked, he got his back to the wall, and ſtood on his defence, pointing it out, and calling ſeveral times to take Routlidge out of the room; that accordingly one was carrying him out of the room, and at the ſame time two men ſeized Chiſwell's ſword arm, and held it ſo ſtrongly that it was impoſſible for him to puſh forward; that Routlidge broke from the man that was carrying him out, and ruſhed ſuddenly back, the candle being then out, and to all appearance ruſhed upon the ſword that was pointed out. How this unhappy affair may appear upon trial, I cannot ſay; but, upon the whole, we were induced to think, from the opinions and facts laid before us, that this caſe was bailable; and having that ſatisfaction as to the legality and propriety of it, we did, on four worthy gentlemen entering into a recognizance with him before us, he in 2000 l. and they in 1000 l. each, admit him to bail.

Waving the dignity of our ſtations, which to ſome perhaps might ſeem to forbid this popular addreſs, it can, I think, ill become no man to remove public miſapprehenſions; and ſo leave it. JOHN BLAIR.

BOSTON, July 18

Saturday laſt his Excellency the Governor was pleaſed further to prorogue the general aſſembly of this province to wedneſday the third of September next.

We hear his Excellency Governor Murray has appointed Joſeph Gridley of this town, to be high ſheriff of the province of Canada.

Thurſday laſt was obſerved throughout this province as a day of general Thankſgiving, for the repeal of the Stamp-act.

Yeſterday his Majeſty's ſhip Fortune, Capt. Biſhop, ſailed from hence with a fair wind for England.—She had all the ſtamped paper on board, which was ſent to this government ſome time ſince.—Charles Paxton, and Thomas Palmer, Eſqrs. went paſſengers in the Fortune.

BOSTON, July 21.

Yeſterday Capt. Rogers in the Nova-Scotia-Packet, arrived here in 12 days from Halifax, by whom we learn that the right hon. lord Colvill was to ſail from thence for England in a few days: Admiral Durell is to take that ſtation.

NEWPORT, July 21.

The General Aſſembly of New York, at their laſt ſeſſion, paſſed an act to make it felony without benefit of clergy, to counterfeit the bills of credit of ANY of his Majeſty's colonies, which paſs in payment in the colony of New-York.

The damage occaſioned by the riots in Boſton, in Auguſt laſt, according to eſtimates delivered in to the Governor and Council, is as follows, viz.

NAPLES, May 24.

A SUDDEN and very terrible eruption has lately happened at Mount Gibel [Ætna.] The lava was ſo abundant and rapid, that in ten hours only it over-ran about ten miles, deſtroyed a very conſiderable grove of mulberry trees, and a great quantity of paſture-grounds.

GENOA, May 25. They write from Madrid, that that capital is to be made a place of arms; that they have taken up and puniſhed there a number of robbers and vagabonds; that all manner of games have been prohibited there; and that publication has been made throughout all the cities of Spain, that whoever ſhall be convicted of having entered into any conſpiracy for diſturbing the public tranquility, ſhall be put to death, without hope of pardon.

MADRID, May 30. In a late gazette we gave an account, that there had been a fermentation among the populace at Barcelona, which was ready to break out into an open revolt, but that the heads of the artiſans had cauſed a deliberation to be fixed up, in which they threaten the authors and promoters of theſe commotions. The Marquis de la Mina, governor and captain general of the province, for the better ſuppreſſing theſe pernicious deſigns, which regarded him principally, cauſed the following publication to be made by ſound of trumpet: "You have been witneſſes of the papers, which have been fixed up againſt my adminiſtration; I know the deſign of the people to riſe againſt me; but I exhort them ſtrongly to deſiſt from their purpoſe, which cannot but prove abortive; otherwiſe I am reſolved, and orders are given, to burn the town, and to bury you under the ruins of your houſes, on the leaſt commotion that ſhall be made againſt the King's authority."——Since this menace and the meaſures taken in conſequence, every thing has been quiet in that city.

Some advices from Turky inſinuate, that Prince Heraclius, of Georgia, had actually advanced to Trebiſonde; and that the Sultan, intimidated by his ſucceſs, had declared the prince and his countrymen free, independent of the Porte, and exempted from tribute.

LEGHORN, May 31. Letters juſt received from Conſtantinople adviſe, that recruits are raiſing with the greateſt diligence both there and throughout the whole Ottoman Empire.

We now plainly ſee that the Marquis de Marbeuf is reſolved to attack the Malcontents of Corſica; and Paoli is preparing at all events to ſtand the attack, being determin'd to ſacrifice the laſt drop of his blood to ſupport his independency, and the liberty of his countrymen.

MADRID, June 4. The commotions, which we had flattered ourſelves with being ſuppreſſed by the flight of the Marquis de Squilace, are now blazing out with ſuch additional violence as to threaten in a very ſerious manner the total deſtruction of the kingdom. A number of our principal families talk of retiring 'till they ſee the iſſue of theſe affairs, and ſeveral have already actually ſet out for England. From America we have received advices that every thing is in the utmoſt diſorder; ſo that the affairs of the Spaniſh monarchy ſeem in every quarter to be extremely critical.—The thinking part of the people are of opinion, that the Jeſuits are at the bottom of all theſe diſturbances; and as this belief daily gains ground, it is more than probable, that ſome ſevere reſolution will take place in regard to that celebrated ſociety.——The Engliſh ambaſſador's return to his own court, in the midſt of all our confuſion, occaſions a variety of ſpeculations.—The meaſures which were intended to be taken againſt Portugal, are now entirely ſuſpended, if not laid aſide.

PARIS, June 14. A body of French forces, conſiſting of 10,000 men, are marched for the frontiers of Spain, to be in readineſs to aſſiſt his Catholic Majeſty, in caſe of any farther troubles in that kingdom.

LONDON, June 21.

ON Wedneſday laſt his Majeſty in council, paſſed twenty grants of lands in Eaſt-Florida, upon petitions preferred by gentlemen of rank and fortune, who intend ſettling them immediately.

His Royal Highneſs the Duke of York is to be appointed Lord High Admiral of England, and the board of admiralty will continue to exerciſe the ſame powers as at preſent, under the denomination of a council to his Royal Highneſs.

The portion of the Princeſs Caroline-Matilda betrothed to the King of Denmark, will be paid out of the ordinary revenues of the crown. It is ſaid, it will be 100,000l. ſterling; that the King is authorized to advance this ſum; and that the parliament will reimburſe it at the opening of the next ſeſſion.—As to the eſtabliſhments of the Dukes of York and Gloceſter, and Prince Henry-Frederic, they will likewiſe be ſettled in the approaching ſeſſion of parliament. The 45,000l ſterling, which the late Duke of Cumberland enjoyed, will be divided between their royal highneſſes; and the two eldeſt will have one a conſiderable employment in the marine, and the other an eminent poſt in the army; ſo that the public will ſuſtain no additional expence in this article: But there is a talk of augmenting next year to a million ſterling the annual ſum of 800,000l. deſtined for the ſupport of the royal family.

We hear, that the Great Commoner has lately made the following noble and truly patriotic propoſal: That, upon condition he was permitted to act upon his own principles, for the public good, without the favourite or any of his party interfering, he, with four or five noblemen and gentlemen, whoſe patriotiſm is as unqueſtionable as his own, would, with the greateſt alacrity, ſerve their country without fee or reward; and, that they would not accept or deſire the ſmalleſt ſhare of the emoluments belonging to the offices they ſhould fill in the adminiſtration, but that the ſame ſhould be entirely appropriated to the uſe of the public.——Noble indeed, if true!

In regard to the various reports circulated in the papers of an approaching coalition, and change in the miniſtry, the REAL truth (we are confidently aſſured) is, there is a party for that purpoſe forming under Mr. Pitt and Lord Temple, in which George Grenville, Eſq; is deſtined to a very reſpectable poſt: And as ſoon as an alteration in the miniſtry takes place, the Marquis of Granby is to be appointed to the ſame honours in the army as the late Duke of Cumberland held, immediately previous to his retirement after the convention of Cloſter-ſeven.

A Nobleman, of no great fortune, loſt 2000 guineas laſt Tueſday, on one ſingle throw at the hazard table.

The Bruſſels Gazette of the 9th inſt. under the article of London, has the following paragraph:

"The refuſal of the upper houſe to approve of the bill which had paſſed the houſe of commons, touching the ſeizure of papers in the houſes of private perſons, has cauſed a great deal of diſcontent in the public.—The flattering hopes which had been conceived, that from henceforward the houſes of the inhabitants would no longer be expoſed to be viſited on a ſimple ſuſpicion of treaſon, evil doings, or miſdemeſtions, are now vaniſhed; for the putting it off for two months is conſidered as an abſolute refuſal. Mr. Wilkes, who on advice of the firſt reſolution of the lower houſe, which declared illegal General Warrants for arreſting and carrying off perſons and papers, had ventured to repaſs into his own country, in the confidence that this bill would paſs in like manner in the houſe of peers, has taken the reſolution of quitting that kingdom, and returning to Paris, finding himſelf unable to get his proſcription taken off, and to procure his re eſtabliſhment in his rights and privileges. The indecent expreſſions which he made uſe of in ſome of his papers, againſt the dignity of his Sovereign, and the authority of parliament, have been the principal reaſon why they would not furniſh him with an opportunity of getting the deciſions iſſued againſt him revoked."

It is reported, that the Right Hon. the Earl of Holderneſſe will be appointed to conduct his Majeſty's ſiſter to the King of Denmark.

And we hear her Royal Highneſs has particularly deſired, that her wedding cloaths, and other Royal Highneſs's other dreſs, may be made entirely of the manufacture of England.

According to letters from Madrid, orders have been ſent from court to ſtop the marching of the French troops nearer to the capital, from which it was believed tranquility was upon the point of being once more eſtabliſhed.

They write from Vienna, that the Turks have withdrawn part of the garriſon of Belgrade, and were filing off troops from all the northern provinces.

JUNE 26.

It is ſaid that General Pulteney has reſigned his command of the 13th regiment of foot to his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter. And

There is a talk that General Pulteney will be made Governor of Gibraltar, in the room of General Irwin, to be promoted at home.

It is ſaid, that the Hon. Commodore Byron will be created a Rear-Admiral of his Majeſty's navy, before his departure for the South Seas.

His Majeſty, in conſideration that ſeveral of the domeſticks of his late Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland are out of employment, has ordered a year's wages to be paid to each of them.

The new Pruſſian Miniſter, juſt arrived here, is ſaid to be charged with a plan for an alliance between our court and certain northern powers.

Letters from Leghorn adviſe, that at the next general aſſembly of the Corſicans it would be finally determined, which of the republican ſyſtems of Europe ſhould be adopted in future government of that ſtate; when, it was expected, that the preference would be given to that of the Dutch, by encouraging foreigners of all nations to ſettle in the iſland for the benefit of trade.

Letters juſt received from Cadiz mention, that fourteen men of war and frigates are now fitting out there, the command of which had been given to Admiral Navarro, but the deſtination of the fleet was not known.

We hear that in the projected voyage of the Dolphin man of war, it will be attempted to make a diſcovery what land is to be met with to the north-eaſt of the Philippines, as far as the latitude of 60 degrees, from whence to come about by the ſouth to California; and whether Nova Zembla is an iſland adjoining to the main, or the inlets of Hudſon's Bay have any opening to the weſt ſea.

It is ſaid a noble northern peer, lately deceaſed at the age of eighty-four, for the laſt thirty-five years (the time he parted from his lady) had not converſed with twenty-five perſons, beſides his own domeſticks.

They write from Antigua, that a free Negro has lately diſcover'd a very rich crimſon dye, from a preparation of the fruit of the Manchineal Tree; which, for brilliancy of colour, exceeds any thing hitherto attempted, and was extremely durable.

JUNE 28.

We hear, that the Iſle of Man will have the liberty to ſend four members to parliament, and the Biſhop of the iſland to have a ſeat in the houſe of peers; when, at the ſame time, the laws and cuſtoms will be the ſame as in England, and trade will be greatly encouraged, by ſettling two manufactories there, one at Douglas, and the other at Peel-Town, next ſeſſion of parliament.

It is ſaid, that the late voyage round the World, performed by Commodore Byron, in the Dolphin, was in conſequence of a plan and obſervations found among the late Lord Anſon's papers, and communicated by his heirs to the lords of the admiralty.

We are pretty poſitively aſſured, that ſome emiſſaries of France have been extremely active amongſt ſome of the ſailors who went round the world with Commodore Byron, in order to obtain accounts of our new diſcoveries in the South-Seas; which it is ſaid, are likely to prove to the nation of infinite more importance than has yet been made known to the public.

There are three other ſmall ſhips of war (ſheathed with copper) ordered to Sea, with a view to perfect Commodore Byron's diſcoveries, it is ſaid there is reaſon to believe, there are not only ſeveral ſmall iſlands near that already found out, but a main land, ſuppoſed to ſtretch away to Tartary.

It appears by a map juſt publiſhed of the ſeat of war between the Grand Signior and Prince Heraclius of Georgia, that this intrepid hero has penetrated already above 500 miles into the Ottoman empire. It ſhould therefore be no matter of ſurprize, that the Turks are ſeized with ſuch a panic as to cauſe them to draw troops from their garriſons in all the provinces throughout that vaſt empire, and raiſe recruits, in order to make head againſt the ſucceſsful inroads made by the Georgian conqueror.

Letters from Stockholm, of the 3d of June ſay, that for fear the ſpirit of inſurrection, which has been excited by Hoffman, ſhould increaſe, and attract a greater number of adherents, the commanders and principal officers of the provinces have been ordered to their reſpective charges without delay, and for the ſame reaſon, the cuſtomary guards of the city have been doubled.

The French are raiſing 40 companies of ſoldiers of 100 men each, who are deſigned to go under the command of M. St. Victor, to relieve their troops in the iſlands of St. Domingo, Martinico, and Guadaloupe.—Eighteen hundred of their marine alſo are to be ſent to the iſles of France and Bourbon, and to other ports of the Eaſt. The India Company alone are likewiſe to be permitted to land, and have factories there, but even they without interfering as to the garriſons.

Letters from Barcelona ſay, that the Marquis de la Mina, on advice of the plot formed there againſt him, took the following method of ſwing the inhabitants into tranquility. Under pretence of changing part of the garriſon, he ordered a body of forces into the town from a neighbouring place, with which he ſtrengthened the guards, doubled thoſe at the gates, and commanded a number of pieces of placed in the caſtle; but in ſuch a manner, that they could ſweep the principal ſtreets and croſs-ways of the city. When he had taken theſe precautions, he ordered the inhabitants by ſound of trumpet, to aſſemble oppoſite the caſtle, from whence he made the declaration to them, mentioned in the other page of this paper, and concluded with aſſuring them, that he was determined to ſupport it with the laſt drop of his blood.

JULY 1.

Yeſterday the Earl of Rochford kiſſed his Majeſty's hand, on being appointed Ambaſſador to the court of France.

The ſame day Sir James Gray kiſſed his Majeſty's hand, on being appointed Ambaſſador to the court of Madrid.

It is now ſaid, that Mr. Pitt will not accept of any department in the adminiſtration, but that a new Miniſtry is forming, who will have the ſanction of his approbation, ſome of whom are from remote parts of the country, and have never breathed the contaminated air of the court, who, notwithſtanding, have virtue and abilities which will aſtoniſh and cover with ſhame all the ſons and miniſters of corruption.

The gigantic inhabitants of the iſland diſcovered by Commodore Byron, had not, it is ſaid, a ſingle offenſive weapon amongſt them, but tho' dreſſed in ſkins, had generally bracelets of gold upon their arms, and were attended each with a dog of uncommonly large ſize.

It is ſaid that the right honourable the Earl of Rochford will be furniſhed with a ſpirited memorial to the court of France, with regard to the payment of the Canada bills, before his departure for his embaſſy to that kingdom.

We are informed, that ſome ſhips of war will be immediately ordered to cruize on the French coaſt, to watch the motions of the fleets now fitting out at Breſt and Toulon.

They write from Copenhagen, that there has lately been dug up in one of the mines in Norway, a piece of ſilver ore, which weighed 560 pounds, being 5 feet 6 inches long, and four feet in circumference, which is valued at five thouſand crowns, and is depoſited in the King of Denmark's muſæum, at Copenhagen.

It is reported, that the Danes are going to ſend out ſome ſhips for making new diſcoveries in the South-Seas.

On Friday there was a hearing before his honour the Maſter of the Rolls, concerning a legacy of about 10,000 l. left by the late Sir William Pynſent, to the right honourable William Pitt, Eſq; which was conteſted by ſome of the relations of the ſaid deceaſed Baronet; and after many learned arguments of the moſt eminent counſel, it was determined in favour of Mr. Pitt.

JULY 2.

It is thought the departure of Sir James Grey, for Madrid, will be haſtened, on account of ſome freſh matters neceſſary to be ſettled between the two courts, relative to ſome Britiſh captures in the Weſt-Indies.

Advice is ſaid to be received, that the Spaniards are preparing to ſend out a fleet of obſervation to the South-Seas.

Private letters from Leghorn adviſe, that Prince Heraclius of Georgia, had gained a compleat victory over the Baſhaw of Erzerum, who had marched againſt him with a body of 50,000 men.

An order is gone to the out ports for augmenting the crews of the guard-ſhips to their middle complements.

Private letters from Paris mention, that mild meaſures, in regard to the Corſicans, had been ſtrongly recommended by the Embaſſadors of two foreign powers.

They write from Paris, that the French troops, who were ſent to quell the inſurrections in Spain, are on the march back again from the Spaniſh frontiers.

It is ſaid, that the garriſon of Minorca will ſoon be reinforced, and the fortifications of that iſland be put into a better ſtate of defence.

The exact ſtate of the Spaniſh marine, according to letters received from Madrid, is ſaid to be as follows, viz. 14 ſhips of the line at Ferrol, nine of them rigged and in commiſſion; 11 at Cathagena, only five in commiſſion; 23 at Cadiz, 17 in good order: No mention is made of frigates, or men of war upon the ſtocks.

An eſtimate of the expence of ſheathing the whole Britiſh navy with copper, has lately been preſented to the board of admiralty; which compared with that of ſheathing with oak, is computed will rather be a ſaving than otherwiſe, on account of its duration.

New Advertiſements.

His Majeſty's Packet-Boat the Anna-Thereſa, Capt. Valentine Dyer, ſails for Falmouth on Wedneſday the 3d inſtant.—The mails will be cloſed to-morrow.

Letters from St. Auguſtine, dated the 23d paſt, inform us, that the garriſon of that fortreſs had been very ſickly for ſome time, and continued to be ſo; that there were not then more than two officers able to do duty; and that Capt. John Wilſon, comanding Royal Artillery there, died the day before, after a few days illneſs.

Extract of a Letter from Penſacola.

"The Creeks and Chactahs are now at war together. The firſt, before the Chactahs meddled with them, were very ſaucy and inſolent towards the white people; but, upon a talk ſent up to their nation, by his Excellency Governor Johnſtone, reprimanding them for their conduct, they returned a very ſubmiſſive anſwer, and hoped we would not go to war with them, as they were ſorry for what they had done, and deſired to live our friends for the future; requeſting at the ſame time, that his Excellency would be pleaſed to ſhew no partiality, to either of the parties who were at war together, and give one no more powder and ball than the other."

To be ſold in ſmall tracts,

ABOUT twelve thouſand acres of land, on the head of Cambahee river, known by the name of the Salt-catcher barony, now the property of Sir William Baker, Brice Fither, and Nicholas Linwood, Eſqrs. of London. The plat of ſaid barony is now in the hands of Mr. Owen Bowen, who has directions to lay it out in tracts; it is allowed to be exceeding fine ſwamp, with a ſufficiency of very good high land on each ſide, proper for corn and indigo, on which a commodious ſettlement may be made. Alſo,

A part of the barony in Granville county, known by the name of Jaſper's barony, adjoining the lands of colonel Daniel Heyward, and other ſettlements on the Euhaws: The plat may now be ſeen in the hands of William Maine. Credit will be given for the above lands, the purchaſers paying intereſt and giving ſecurity to

PAUL TRAPIER & FRANCIS STUART,

RAN AWAY from Arthur Neil, Eſq; at Penſacola, about the 10th laſt month, and ſuppoſed to be making for this province thro' the Indian nations: Three NEGRO MEN, called Scipio, Blackwall, and Oſeyn; Scipio is a likely, well-made, ſtrong negro, about 5 feet 8 inches high, ſpeaks Engliſh very well, and is fit for the houſe or field; he went off in a blue jacket and breeches, took a Militia muſket and powder-horn with him: He was purchaſed in Charles-Town of The Rev. Mr. Wilſon.—Blackwall is not ſo tall or luſty, hath ſmall legs, but is very healthy, knows how to ſhave well, cook, &c. ſpeaks good Engliſh, but very thick, and a little hoarſe, has been in England; he went off in a blue ſurtout coat, with braſs buttons.—Oſeyn is a new negro, bought at Charles-Town in November laſt, is well made, and about 18 years of age, inclin'd to squint or looking ſide-ways.——Whoever takes up the ſaid negroes, and delivers them to the warden of the work-houſe, ſhall have 10*l.* reward for each, and every reaſonable charge, paid by GEORGE SMITH.

TO be hired by the month, or year, a wench who is a good plain cook and waſher. Enquire of
t. f. Benjamin Villepontoux.

WHEREAS my wife Barbary hath eloped from me, without any juſt cauſe or reaſon: This is therefore to forwarn all perſons from crediting her on my accompt, as I am determined not to pay any debts of her contracting, from this 18th day of Auguſt, 1766, and to caution all perſons from harbouring her, or they may expect to be dealt with the rigour of the law.

DANIEL ERY.
